

Guelph Councillor Named Chair of AMO's Large Urban Caucus

December 4, 2018

At the most recent Board meeting of the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO), Guelph Councillor Cathy Downer was selected as Chair of the Board's Large Urban Caucus.

In this position, Downer will serve on the Board's Executive and help set policy for the association. She will also attend meetings with the Province, which are held as part of the AMO's Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Government of Ontario.

"AMO's caucuses represent the diversity of Ontario's municipal governments and give a voice to the shared interests of their members. We are pleased Cathy has stepped into the role of Chair of the Large Urban Caucus as the Board fills its vacancies," said AMO President, Jamie McGarvey.

About the Association of Municipalities of Ontario:

AMO is a non-profit organization representing almost all of Ontario's 444 municipal governments. AMO supports strong and effective municipal government in Ontario and promotes the value of municipal government as a vital and essential component of Ontario and Canada's political system.

For more information about AMO, please go to our website: www.amo.on.ca

-30-

For more information contact:

Brian Lambie,
AMO Media Contact
416.729.5425
lambie@redbrick.ca